Vacation Days

Gee! but don't it seem good after a hard year of "Quiz" to get back with the folks at home and enjoy a rest well earned.

Maybe you'll want a few requistes to fill in for Summer in "Nifty Apparel" for young men; if you do, come to us.

If you're coming back next year, "hold open" your needs until you get to us—we specialize "young men's clothes," they're decidedly different from dads.

Take our slogan—study and think:

If you're going to ring a bull's eye in the target practice of life, you've got to have a rifle, a pea-shooter is no good.

WHY HE WAS TARDY

"Please, teacher, Smith's dog got ahold of my pants; that's why I'm a little bit behind."

She—"I am rather in favor of the English than the American mode of spelling."

Scripps—"Yes."

She—"Yes, indeed! Take 'parlour' for instance. Having you in it makes all the difference in the world."

A COLLECTION HINT

One of the students has hit on a money-making scheme at last. The preachers will go wild over it. It's a church contribution box. The coins fall through slots of different sizes, and half dollars, quarters, and dimes land on velvet; but nickels and pennies drop through on to a Chinese gong.

Fleming—What was the worst storm you ever encountered?

Johnson P.—Well let me see; when Mr. Beadle is angry the words rage at about two thousand a minute.

REINFORCEMENTS NEEDED

A boy ran up to a policeman and said, "Say, there's a man around there what's been fightin' with my father for about an hour."

"Why didn't you call me before?" asked the policeman.

"Well," said the boy, "Pa was getting the best of it up to a few minutes ago."

Sarcastic Percy—"Your school never turns out gentlemen."

Sybert—"Of course not, dearest, we let them go right on and graduate.

GIRLS! NOTICE.

If any young man insists on staying too late try this:

Give him a piece of paper and a pencil. Tell him to take any number between 1 and 9, add 1 multiply by 9, cross out the left hand figure, add 14, add the number started with.

Morton—I hope the Balkan war put an end to those Turkish atrocities.

Merriam—So do I; I never could smoke the blamed things.

Schultheiss—I've been the unluckiest individual the last few weeks, everything I look at breaks, I have broken four looking-glasses already.

Isn't it a fact that genuine and general approval can be won ONLY through genuine merit? And constancy of approval only through constancy of merit?
This fact is what gives us our confidence in recommending "WALK OVER" shoes so enthusiastically to you.

"When your son is through college what are you intending to make of him?"

"Can't tell yet. He went to a co-ed institution and is booked for the next two years as an usher at weddings."

Tiffany—I wonder who invented the old fashion of strapping the trousers down over the shoes?

Senator—The fellow whose wife had just given him a pair of those loud Christmas socks.

Peddler—"Madam, I have here a fine collection of complexion beautifiers which ah,—

Mrs. Richardson—"No, you don't work any skin game on me."

Walker—So you took your girl to the baseball game?

Morton—Yes.

Walker—Did she enjoy it?

Morton—Only part of it. She thought they wasted a great deal of the time running around the field, but she thought the arguments with the umpire were quite interesting.

He boasted loudly of the pies
His dear old mother used to make.
But he never said a word about
Dyspepsia pills he used to take.

A little "Brush" chugged up to the gate at the Indianapolis races.

The gate-keeper, demanding the usual fee for automobiles, called: "A dollar for the car."

The owner looked up with a pathetic smile of relief, and said, "Sold."
