PACIFIC BEACH.

Mushrcoms are plentiful.

The Gridleys have moved into the Wilson house.

Dr. Havice was able to be out on Christmas night.

There are now two mails a day. Morning and evening.

Mr. Crampton and Miss Hawkins were over from La Jolla to attend the Christmas tree.

The Scott brothers gave a marshmallow bake to a select party at the residence of F. Barnes on Friday evening.

James Maxwell, recently from the east, has purchased Mr. Thorpe's old place south of his present residence.

Mrs. R. H. Thorpe has issued invitations for a fancy dress party to be given her daughter on New Year's evening.

The Christmas tree at the college building was an emphatic success. All were remembered, and every participant was happy.