PACIFIC BEACH.

Rain and roses!

The Packards visited their ranch on Thursday.

The Woman's Aid society met at Mrs. Frost's on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Kate Phillips from the city spent the afternoon with Miss Thorpe on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosebery have been spending a week with friends in San Diego.

Ethel McLellan and Mary Marston came out from the city on Friday and spent the day with Mary Barnes.

Every lemon tree in the thrifty orchards resembles a huge bouquet, so richly dark is the green of the older growth tipped with the new leaves in tints of reddish brown.

It is safe to predict that there will be a good deal of substantial improvement at this place during the coming year, and several fine new houses built.

On Friday evening of last week there was a marshmallow roast at the residence of Mr. Barnes, to which all the young people of the Beach were invited. Marshmallow roasts are becoming popular at this place.
