PACIFIC BEACH.

Maiden-hair ferns in the hollows.

Miss Mabel Rowe left for Los Angeles on Saturday.

Mr. Maxwell and family moved into their new home on Wednesday.

Miss Evangeline Rowe returned to school at Los Angeles on Monday of last week.

Theodore Barnes left for San Francisco on the steamer Santa Rosa Saturday evening. He returns to the State University at Berkeley.

The children, armed with knives for digging purposes, put in much of their time in gathering that which delights the childish palate, ground-cocoanuts.

Miss Rosberry has returned from a visit to the city and a trip through Chula Vista, Otay and Tia Juana. She has seen no place so delightfully located as Pacific Beach.

A number of strangers have been wandering about looking over the place lately. The verdict of all is that the college settlement is one of the most delightful locations in Southern California.

Mr. Crampton of La Jolla gave our young people a unique and very delightful party on Friday evening. All things conspired to render their happiness complete. The winter air was balmy and the full moon made the ride most enjoyable.