PACIFIC BEACH.

The ladies of Pacific Beach spent a pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Ash and her mother, Mrs. Roseberry, on Thursday.

Mrs. Robertson made a birthday party for little Irene on Monday, and twenty-three of her little school friends enjoyed the happy event.

There was a stereopticon exhibit of views of the Hawaiian islands at Stough hall on Friday evening for the benefit of the church. Hon. H. P. Wood, the Hawaiian consul at San Diego, described the scenes in a very interesting manner. Through his kindness have we been permitted to enjoy this treat, and our people unite in thanking him for the courtesy.
