CHRISTMAS IN 1957!

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS are being hung by city electrical workers along the Prado in Balboa Park in 1957. The 1957 photos are from the Union-Tribune Collection at the San Diego Historical Society.

CHRISTMAS AT NAVY HOSPITAL, probably shortly after it opened in 1922.
